

Re-Orientation Programme for MBA 12

One week Re-Orientation Programme was organized for batch MBA 12(IIIrd Semester) from Aug 1st to Aug 08th 2016. This one week of reorientation consisted of a mix of lectures, industrial visits, industry interaction and expert sessions.

The week started with introductory sessions on various subjects to provide insights to students. After completing their summer internship and having their first experience of corporate culture it was important to align their industry experiences with academic inputs. On 08.08.2016 the re-orientation day started with an Inaugural session wherein Director, Dr. Pawan Gupta welcomed the Chief Guest, Dr. Ashok A. Sonkusare(Joint Advisor, NITI Aayog) and the Guest of Honor Mr. Ravi Nawal(Country Head, Kapronasia). This was followed by Inaugural address given by Dr. Ashok A. Sonkusare who shared his affluent experiences and also highlighted the importance of entrepreneurial skill development in present times. Mr. Ravi Nawal delivered Key Note address with highly captivating words.

After the Inaugural session, Dr. Sanjeev Tandon(Head, Discipline & Student Welfare Committee) declared the list of awardees of badge of honor and subsequently the awards were given by the Guests and Director to faculty members and students for their contributions in Academic Activities, Research Contributions, Discipline & Student welfare, Cultural, Sports and Club Activities.

Towards the end of reorientation week workshop on Creative Thinking Skills was conducted by PDP professional. Industrial visits to Moser Baer, Uflex & MSME were organized which were a great learning experience for the students.
