

“ARMOTSAV 2025”

(Annual Sports & Cultural Fest)

Feb 7-9, 2025 (Sports Meet) & Feb 13-15, 2025(Cultural Fest)

The Army Institute of Management and Technology, Greater Noida, organized its annual sports & cultural Fest, 'ARMOTSAV 2K25' on 7th, 8th & 9th Feb & 13th, 14th and 15th February 2025. The students were extremely enthusiastic and showed great participation in the cultural fest organized by the cultural committee.

The Sports event was declared open by Director AIMT, Maj Gen Dr. Rajendra Bana (Retd) on 7th Feb 2025 & the cultural fest on 13th February 2025 by lighting the lamp, followed by a motivating speech. The event started with various Intra-institute & Inter-Institute competitions. In sports, Football, basketball, volleyball, athletics, Chess, Table-tennis, tug of war & E-sports and in cultural, Group Dance, Solo Singing, Face Painting, Painting & Debate. A lot of Students from Colleges like Delhi Metropolitan college, Army Institute of Education & G.L. Bajaj College participated in the events. The most highlighted event was Group Dance where various teams from North and South Campus of Delhi University participated. The Dance competition was judged by Ms. Nabanita Mahesh, who is a trained Kathak Dancer and runs a Dance Academy. In the Dance Competition Daulat Ram College bagged first position and Ramjas College bagged 2nd position. The Solo Singing competition was judged by a highly talented artist, Ms. Alisha Mir Akbar, who is a trained Hindustani classical vocalist, having earned double graduate degrees from the esteemed Pracheen Kala Kendra and Gandharva Mahavidyalaya, Delhi. Rahul Singh Rawat of MBA20 received 1st prize in Solo singing.

In Intercollege Debate Competition Preeti from AIE won the first position. In Face Painting Competition, Sneha and Priya from AIMT won the first position and In Painting competition Asha from AIE bagged the first prize. The Armotsav Day 2 commenced with a Dance Battle. Students of different batches showcased different drapes around the world. The whole day was about energy, expression, and excitement. Another most exhilarating event was the fashion Show and the choice of Mr. and Ms. Armotsav. Mr. Siddhant Pratap Singh and Ms. Manju Karki of MBA-21 were crowned as Mr. & Ms. Armotsav. The day continued with a lot more Inter-batch events such as Extempore and Group Dance. All the participants showed their coordination, passion and enthusiasm, which was simply outstanding.

On the 3rd day of Armotsav Maj Gen Sumit Mehta VSM, Chief of Staff Delhi Area and Chairman AIMT joined us for the Grand Finale of Armotsav. The day began with a welcome dance. It was with immense excitement and joy that have embark on the cultural segment of the today's event, a celebration of art, tradition, and creativity. It was followed by vibrant Ghoomar dance. Originating from Rajasthan, this dance is known for its graceful twirls, colourful attire. The programme further continued with a Punjabi Bhangra Dance footloose

At last the most awaited moment arrived the prize distribution ceremony. Under Football Category 1st position was bagged by bba04 and bba05. Under basketball Category 1ST position is bagged by MBA analytics 02. Under VOLLEYBALL Category For Girls 1st position is bagged by bba01 and MBA 21, Under Volleyball Category for boys 1st position is bagged by MBA21, Under Tug of war Category for Girls 1st position is bagged by MBA 20,BBA 05 AND BBA 04 Under Tug of war Category for boys 1st position is bagged by bba05 and 04 and the Armotsav concluded by vote of thanks by Registrar AIMT, Col. Dinesh Kumar Tyagi SM (Retd) where he praised all the participants for organising a wonderful event.