FROM THE DIRECTOR'S DESK

Air Cmde (Dr) JK Sahu
(Retd) Director, AIMT

As we reflect on the October-December quarter of 2024, I am filled with pride and gratitude for the collective achievements of the AIMT community. This quarter has been marked by a series of impactful initiatives, including industry-focused workshops, milestone events, and vibrant celebrations, all of which have enriched our campus experience.

I am particularly proud of the strides we have made in placements, with our students securing offers from leading companies Flipkart, MakeMyTrip, Zomato, Green Rider Technology', 'Fact set', 'Axis AMC', 'Infoedge', 'Savex Technology Cyfuture' etc.

The 'Employment Enhancement Program' (EEP) and 'Functional Readiness' sessions have played a crucial role in preparing our students for these opportunities. Furthermore, the exemplary performance of our students at the GGSIPU Sports Meet, is a reflection of the resilience and excellence that AIMT embodies.

Cultural and professional events like the HR Conclave, Diwali Mela, and the Corporate Readiness Workshop have fostered both personal growth and community spirit. These initiatives align perfectly with our vision of producing well-rounded individuals ready to excel in the corporate world and beyond.

As we move forward, let us carry the momentum of this quarter's successes into the new year. Together, we will continue to uphold AIMT's mission of academic and professional excellence, fostering leaders of tomorrow.

FROM THE REGISTRAR'S DESK

Col D. K. Tyagi, SM (Retd.)
Registrar, AIMT

As the Registrar of the Army Institute of Management and Technology (AIMT), I am elated to see that AIMT has grown not just in numbers but in its commitment to providing quality management education, with firmly rooted in ethics, discipline, and leadership.

Our unique position as a welfare initiative under the Army Welfare Education Society (AWES) gives us a sense of purpose that shapes the ethos of our institution and guides us toward our vision of being a top-tier B-School.

Reflecting on our progress, I am proud of the inclusive and nurturing environment that AIMT offers. From the very beginning, we have emphasised building a holistic academic experience that focuses on not just academic excellence but also personal and professional growth. The same is reflected in our continued engagement with the corporate world. The Placement Drive brought top-tier companies to our campus, offering competitive packages, which further validated the caliber of our students.

Through initiatives such as the Entrepreneurship Awareness Workshop and the Functional Readiness Program, we continue to bridge the gap between academia and industry, preparing our students for real-world challenges and leadership roles.

As we move forward, I firmly believe that AIMT's future is bright, and we are determined to reach greater heights, ensuring that our students not only excel academically but also become responsible leaders in the business world.

Prof. (Dr.) Shyamali
Satpathy Dean-Academics

As the Dean of Academics at the Army Institute of Management and Technology (AIMT), I take immense pride in the dedication and enthusiasm that our students demonstrate both inside and outside the classroom.

This quarter, AIMT has hosted a series of enriching events and programs designed to enhance both the academic and professional skills of our students. From the students-driven 'Corporate Elegance Showcase' on one hand and industry embedded HR Conclave on the other, AIMT witnessed a fleet of contemporary skills that will aid students to be at the forefront of industry trends. We also organized workshops on the New Labor Codes and Power BI and Advanced Excel, ensuring that our students are well-versed in the latest tools and legislative changes that are reshaping the business landscape.

Furthermore, programs such as the Entrepreneurship Awareness Workshop and B-Plan Competition have sparked entrepreneurial aspirations among our students, while the Functional Readiness Program has equipped them with specialized knowledge.

In addition to academics our students actively participated in the GGSIPU University Sports Meet, bringing home multiple medals and showcasing their sportsmanship. Our Dandiya Night and Diwali Mela were also resounding successes, fostering a sense of community and cultural appreciation.

I am confident that we will continue to focus on delivering a curriculum that balances academic rigor with industry relevance, ensuring that our students are well-prepared to excel in the professional world.

Capturing the spirit of excellence!!

This edition showcases an exciting blend of academic advancements, professional achievements, and cultural festivities. Events like engaging workshops, the inspirational “Walk the Talk,” and the spirited Diwali Mela have brought the AIMT campus to life. Meanwhile, students have continued to excel in placements and sports, earning accolades that further underscore AIMT’s commitment to fostering a vibrant, holistic development environment.

The research contributions of our faculty members, highlighted under the ‘Faculty Highlights’ section, demonstrate AIMT’s intellectual strength. These include paper publications, expert sessions, and the noteworthy achievement of faculty members being awarded Ph.D. degrees. The hard work of our students has also been prominently recognized, particularly their successes at the GGSIPU Sports Meet, bringing pride to the institute.

As this newsletter compiles and celebrates these achievements, it also looks ahead with optimism. With the collective energy of our students, faculty, and alumni, AIMT is poised to reach new heights. The editorial team remains committed to expanding its vision and creating a publication that truly represents the dynamism and aspirations of the AIMT community.

This newsletter is not just a record of accomplishments; it is a celebration of potential, a source of inspiration, and a vision for the future. We hope it instills pride, fosters connections, and motivates everyone associated with AIMT to continue striving for excellence.

COLLEGE & HOSTEL LIFE AT AIMT!!

Kabita Mishra
[MBA-14]

College life is often regarded as one of the most transformative and exciting phases of a person's journey. It is a time of intellectual growth, emotional development, and personal discovery. AIMT provides an opportunity to step away from the comfort of home and embrace independence, particularly when staying in a hostel.

Experience at AIMT was thrilling for me, filled with new academic challenges and the opportunity to meet people from different parts of the country.

The professors were experts in their fields, and the classroom environment encouraged active participation and critical thinking.

Group projects, discussions, and debates with batchmates not only enhanced my academic understanding but also improved my communication and leadership skills. Annual meets, HR conclave and international conferences with the presence of profound speakers helped me develop a passion of learning & growth.

Apart from academics, campus life offered a variety of extracurricular activities. I was the head cultural coordinator of MBA 14 batch and a shining star badge owner for the cultural committee. From organizing college festivals, to actively participating in intra and inter college competitions – all these activities taught me teamwork, creativity, and time management, all of which are essential life skills.

Additionally, living in a hostel was a significant aspect of my college experience. Initially, it felt overwhelming to be away from home and adjust to a new environment. Hostel life at AIMT was a mixture of excitement, challenges, and camaraderie. On one hand, it allowed me to experience freedom and autonomy, with the ability to manage my own schedule and make decisions for myself. On the other hand, it also taught me discipline and accountability, as I had to balance my academic responsibilities with personal life. The friendships forged in the hostel were some of the most genuine and lasting. The common areas and dining halls became spaces for bonding, where we would discuss everything from academics to personal stories. Late-night conversations, shared meals, and impromptu trips around the city became treasured memories.

Reflecting on my college and hostel life at AIMT, I realize how much I grew as an individual. The experiences I gained have had a lasting impact on my personal and professional life. The balance of academic challenges, extracurricular activities, and the enriching experience of hostel life helped me become more independent, responsible, and confident. The memories I made during these years will stay with me forever, and I look back at them with immense gratitude.

THE 7 HABITS OF HIGHLY EFFECTIVE PEOPLE BOOK BY STEPHEN R. COVEY

The 7 Habits of Highly Effective People is a timeless guide to personal and professional growth. The book offers actionable principles rooted in universal values.

Covey's holistic approach emphasizes character development and personal integrity over quick-fix techniques, making it as relevant today as it was earlier. Covey's insights are grounded in enduring principles rather than fleeting trends, offering a robust framework for long-term success.

The book includes actionable exercises, such as creating a personal mission statement, that allow readers to apply the concepts in their lives. The habits transcend industries and cultures, making them applicable to anyone seeking personal growth or improved relationships.

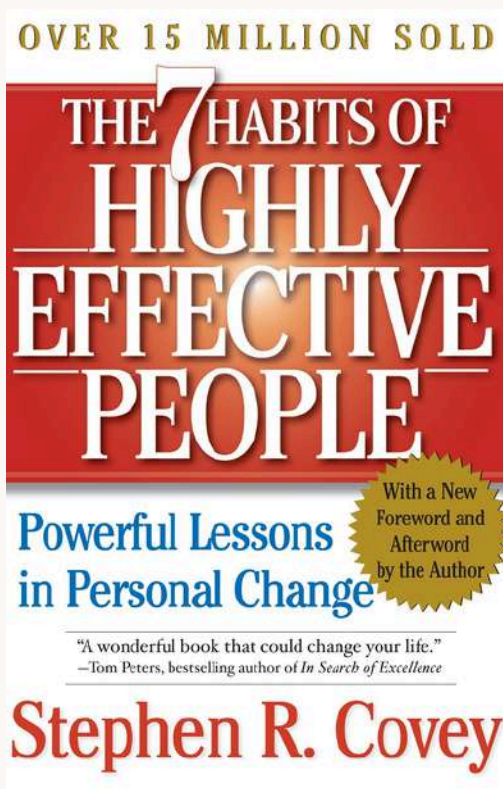

The book is organised around seven habits, divided into three stages of maturity:

1. Private Victory (Independence)

Be Proactive: Take responsibility for your actions and reactions. Covey emphasizes the power of choice and the importance of focusing on what you can control.

Begin with the End in Mind: Define your personal and professional goals by identifying your core values and creating a clear vision for your life.

Put First Things First: Prioritize effectively by distinguishing between urgent and important tasks, fostering time management rooted in purpose.

THE 7 HABITS OF HIGHLY EFFECTIVE PEOPLE BOOK BY STEPHEN R. COVEY

2. Public Victory (Independence)

Think Win-Win: Adopt a mindset of mutual benefit, cultivating collaboration over competition.

Seek First to Understand, Then to Be Understood: Master empathetic listening as a foundational skill for building trust and resolving conflicts.

Synergize: Harness the power of teamwork by valuing diverse perspectives and creating solutions greater than the sum of individual contributions

3. Renewal (Sustained Effectiveness)

Sharpen the Saw: Focus on self-renewal through continuous physical, mental, emotional, and spiritual growth.

The 7 Habits of Highly Effective People is a comprehensive manual for leading a principled, purpose-driven life. Covey's wisdom empowers readers to transform their habits, relationships, and overall effectiveness. This book offers invaluable guidance for building a meaningful and balanced life.

The Employment Enhancement Program (EEP) for MBA Students

The Employment Enhancement Program (EEP) at AIMT aims to prepare MBA students for successful placements by equipping them with essential skills and knowledge. This comprehensive initiative focuses on both MBA General and MBA Analytics students, addressing their specific needs in today's competitive job market.

The program has two major components- soft skills and technical skills. The soft skills component of the program is being conducted by the external agency that specializes in corporate training. Accordingly, AIMT has arranged for an Employability Enhancement Program with the help of corporate trainers Ms. Jaya Shukla and Col. Rakesh Upadhyay.

The program included weekly Aptitude Test sessions to help students enhance their analytical skills, which were critical for recruitment processes. Additionally, technical training was provided, with Python sessions for final year MBA General students and SQL sessions for MBA Analytics students, to ensure proficiency in these important tools.

Further, AIMT in collaboration with Bajaj Finserv conducted a Certificate Program in Banking, Finance & Insurance to equip students from junior batches of MBA general and MBA Analytics as well as senior batch of BBA with essential knowledge and skills relevant to the Banking, Finance, and Insurance sectors.

Functional Skill-building sessions were also planned and executed for students of all domains—namely, Marketing, HR, Finance. This approach fosters a well-rounded skill set among students, preparing them for various roles in the workforce. Furthermore, Excel and Power BI sessions were also undertaken to provide students with valuable data analysis and visualization capabilities.

Through the EEP, AIMT is committed to enhancing the employability of its MBA students, ensuring they are well-equipped to excel in their careers.

Orientation on "Power BI Fundamentals and Advance Excel"

An insightful orientation on "Power BI Fundamentals and Advanced Excel" was conducted on October 9, 2024 by M/S 9ledgpro Pvt. Limited with the objective of equipping participants with advanced skills in data analysis and visualization. This session served as a comprehensive introduction to two of the most powerful tools used in modern business environments for data management and decision-making and was delivered by expert Mr. Parth Shukla, Microsoft Authorised Education Partner.

The session began by delving into the fundamentals of Power BI, where participants were guided through its dynamic capabilities, including creating interactive dashboards, generating meaningful insights from raw data, and leveraging its vast suite of visualization tools to make data-driven decisions.

Further, in Advanced Excel, participants explored the intricate features of the software, such as complex formulas, data modeling, and pivot tables. They were also introduced to advanced techniques like data consolidation, automation through macros, and effective use of data visualization tools like charts and graphs. These skills are invaluable for performing detailed data analysis, managing large datasets, and presenting insights with clarity.

On Day 1 of the FDP, the program began with an insightful session on "Overview of Research Analytics" by Dr. Babita Bhati, Associate Professor, AIMT, aimed at introducing participants to research analytics and its significance in academic and professional settings. The session provided foundational knowledge, enabling participants to understand its scope and relevance. This was followed by a session on "Literature Review Tools and Techniques" by Dr. Rahul Verma, Assistant Professor, AIMT and Dr. Pallavi, Associate Professor, AIMT, which focused on effective literature review techniques and the use of citation management tools. Participants were introduced to AI tools like Mendeley and Zotero alongside SciSpace and AnswerThis, offering practical skills to streamline their research process.

The screenshot shows a Zoom meeting interface with a presentation slide. The slide is divided into two main sections:

- Facilitating Collaboration and Networking
  - Collaboration Insights (ResearchGate and Academia.edu)
  - Global Research Trends (SciVal)
- Supporting Evidence-Based Policy Decisions
  - Funding agency dashboards
  - Times Higher Education (THE) Rankings and QS World University Rankings

On the right side of the slide, there is an infographic titled RESEARCH LAG comparing India, China, and the US. It includes two charts:

- Researchers per 100,000 population: A bar chart showing India (15), China (111), and US (423).
- Percentage of papers in each of the 3 countries that make it to the top 10 research journals: Donut charts showing India (15.8%), China (27.6%), and US (36.2%).

Below the donut charts, there is another chart titled Research investment as % of GDP with a horizontal bar chart showing India (0.7), China (2.1), and US (2.8).

Day 2 of the FDP commenced with a session on "Research Methods" by Dr. Biswajita Parida, Assistant Professor, IIT Delhi, which provided a comprehensive overview of research methodologies and the development of research questions and hypotheses. The session balanced academic contributions with practical applications, covering qualitative and mixed-methods research. The afternoon session on "Overview of Python for Research" by Prof. Sankul Khera, Assistant Professor, AIMT introduced participants to Python programming basics and data analysis libraries, emphasizing its applicability for beginners.

Management/Faculty Development Program on “Cutting-Edge Research Analytics Tools and Trends in Academic Publishing”

Highlights of the Sessions:

On Day 3 of the FDP, the morning session, "Qualitative Research Tools" by Dr. Anubhav Varma, Associate Professor, AIMT, familiarised participants with qualitative research methods and analysis techniques, highlighting strategies to mitigate biases. The afternoon session, "Parametric Testing Using Python," conducted by Air Commodore (Dr.) Jayanta Kumar Sahu, Director, AIMT, demonstrated statistical tests like t-tests, z-tests, ANOVA, and MANOVA, providing practical insights into using Python for parametric analysis.

Level of Measurement	Sample Characteristics					Correlation
	1 Sample	2 Sample		K Sample (i.e. >2)
		Independent	Dependent	Independent	Dependent
Categorical or Nominal	$\chi^2$ or Bi-nominal	$\chi^2$	Mann-Whitney U	$\chi^2$	Cochran's Q
Rank or Ordinal		Mann-Whitney U	Wilcoxon Matched Pairs Signed Ranks	Kruskal Wallis H	Friedman's ANOVA	Spearman's rho
Parametric (Interval & Ratio)	z test or t test	t test between groups	t test within groups	1 way ANOVA between groups	1 way ANOVA (within or repeated measure)	Pearson's r
		Factorial (2 way) ANOVA

(Plonsky, 2001)

Day 4 of the FDP featured a session on "Non-Parametric Testing Using Python" by Dr. Pawan Kumar, Assistant Professor, AIMT, where participants learned non-parametric statistical methods like the Mann-Whitney U Test and Kruskal-Wallis Test through hands-on coding exercises. The second session, "AI-Driven Analytics Tools" by Prof. (Dr.) Pankaj Madan, Professor, Gurukula Kangri, Haridwar, explored the applications of AI tools across the research lifecycle, inspiring participants to leverage AI for ideation, analysis, and visualisation.

Highlights of the Sessions:

On Day 5 of the FDP, Prof. (Dr.) Shyamali Satpathy, Dean Academics, AIMT delivered a session on "Data Visualisation Tools" emphasising Tableau's role in solving real-world challenges through a case-based approach. Participants gained hands-on experience in creating impactful visualisations. The afternoon session, "Report Writing and Review Using AI" by Dr. Durgesh Agnihotri, Associate Professor, GL Bajaj Institute of Technology and Management, highlighted tools like Grammarly, Wordtune, and SciSpace, focusing on ethical AI use and improving writing quality.

Day 6 of the FDP began with a session on "Research Data Management" by Dr. Sanket Sunanda Dash, Asst Professor, IIM Rohtak, covering effective data collection, management, and preprocessing techniques. Participants learned about handling missing data, outlier detection, and reducing bias. The afternoon session, "The Anatomy of Argument: A Way to Academic Communication" by Prof. (Dr.) Shyamali Satpathy, Dean Academic, AIMT, emphasised structured academic communication and logical ordering to enhance research impact.
