

Dr. Priyanka joined the Army Institute of Management and Technology (AIMT) in August, 2024 as an Assistant Professor of Economics. She holds a Ph.D. degree in Economics from Kurukshetra University, Haryana. She also completed her MA in Economics from Kurukshetra University and her BA (Hons) in Economics from the University of Delhi. With over seven years of professional experience, she has held research positions in esteemed government bodies, including the Competition Commission of India (CCI), Ministry of Corporate Affairs (MCA), Insolvency and Bankruptcy Board of India (IBBI) and National Human Rights Commission. Her work has primarily focused on corporate governance, corporate insolvency, competition policy and business and human rights.

She has published her research work in various Journals and edited volumes and has also presented them at National and International Conferences organised by Institutes/Association namely, Indian Institute of Foreign Trade (IIFT), International Input Output Association (IIOA), Gokhale Institute of Politics and Economics (GIPE) and University of Mumbai and Indian Econometric Society. She has participated in numerous workshops organised by prestigious Institutes/Universities namely, South Asian University, Goa Institute of Management, IIT Delhi, Cornell University, and Bharatiya Vidyapeeth Deemed University etc. enhancing her expertise in economic theory, empirical research, policy analysis, and program evaluation.