 - Integrated Courses (dual degree) which have first degree as Academic (Non Professional) and second degree as Professional/Technical for example BA + LLB, B Com + LLB. B Sc.+B.Ed. In such cases student will be pan) for professional part of the course and not for non professional/academic part.
- » Student pursuing Integrated courses wherein one degree is professional and other degree is non professional, he/she will be awarded scholar for professional portion of the dual degree course only and not for academic portion of such course. The same is illustrated with the help of an example as under:

"In BA+LLB (dual degree course) first degree is BA which is non professional and 2nd degree is LLB is which is professional Therefore, schol for professional portion (i.e. LLB) only will be provided".
- . When 1st degree is non-professional and 2nd degree is professional, in such cases, while seeking PM scholarship from third year onward stu must have completed his previous two years of non professional course without fail Repetition/RA/Failure will make student ineligible to apply scholarship.
