

AIMT Fest 2018

AIMT celebrated its two days sports cultural fest – AIMT Fest on 9-10 April, 2018 at AIMT campus. First day was dedicated to Sport tournament –BASSOCC 2018 wherein 8 colleges including AIMT participated in Basketball and Football matches. Different knock-out matches were being played and finally G. L. Bajaj won the finals and GNIOT were the runner ups in Football and in Basketball, GBU won the finals and AIMT was the runner ups. On second day, few games for faculty and staff of AIMT were also arranged in which everyone participated enthusiastically. Few glimpse of BASSOCC 2018 are as follows:

The final day was full of literary and cultural events. It comprised of 10 inter-institute competitions. The participation was overwhelming and a true competitive spirit was observed among all of them. Post lunch, a prize distribution ceremony was kept for the winners and runners up of BASSOCC and Alankriti (Annual Fest) 2017. Maj. Gen. Rajpal Punia, Yudh Seva Medal, COS- Delhi Area and Chairman-AIMT was the Chief Guest of the event. Maj. Gen. and Mrs. Punia along with Brig. S. S. Bhogal, BGS, Delhi Area, Col. J. P. Singh (Retd.), Addl. Dir., AWES and Col. Alope Guha, SO Colleges distributed prizes among the winners. Maj. Gen. Punia also encouraged the students from different institutes with his words of wisdom and declared a Cash Prize of Rs. 51,000 for all the AIMT participants.

It was a student driven activity and the main coordinators for this event were:

Faculty: Dr. Surabhi Goyal, Dr. Anubhav Varma and Prof. Rahul Verma

Students: Gaurav Tiwari, Kabita Mishra, Abhishek Singh Rathore, Bhanu Pratap, Priya, Virender, Vikrant, Nishant.

Few glimpse of Alankriti are as follows:

