

FACULTY EXCHANGE PROGRAMME 2018-19

In an endeavour to share the expertise and to gain mutually, the faculty from Army Institute of Management & Technology delivers session in the Personality Development Programme organised by Army Institute of Education, Greater Noida. In the Personality Development Programme conducted from 15- 25 Jan 2019, two employees of AIMT, Dr Shruti Gupta and Ms Arshiya Ismail conducted sessions on Transaction Analysis and importance of communication skills. The session was for 1 day and was conducted for 100 student- teachers. The objective of this programme was to groom student- teacher to facilitate in getting best placement in top schools. The session was well received by the students who understood the importance of different ego stages and their role in communication.