Guest Session on “Common Sense in Management”

07 Dec 2021

“A journey of a thousand miles begins with a single step.”

At the onset of journey toward two years of MBA, the MBA batch 2021-23 attended guest session on very subtle yet very important topic of “Common Sense in Management” given by Brig. Akhil Dixit, Veteran Indian Army with an experience of over 35 years. Director AIMT, cmde (Dr.) Vivek Chawla welcomed the guest with words of appreciation. Brig. Dixit initiated the session with putting an emphasis on importance of cross functional knowledge in management wherein he advised the students to refrain from getting limited to their choice of functional area.

Brig. Dixit shed light on importance of life skills in the careers and emphasized on the fact that it's the day-to-day tasks and those so-called mundane activities which decide how well are we going to prosper in respective careers. He advised the students to focus on the current events and pay utmost care and attention in the blossom period to reap the fruits later in life. He asserted the fact that one should pursue achievable goals in lie without compromising on the effort part. The goals are divided into short term and long term which must be relentlessly followed by everyone.

Brig. Akhil Dixit shared many life tips with the students like have confidence in your abilities, be smart enough to learn from other's mistakes, take calculated risks, be a gentle human being who can easily help and forgive others. Brig. Dixit reiterated the fact that communication is not all about speaking but carries more weightage in the nonverbal part. He advised the students to be extra careful with the non-verbal cues as in basic manners, integrity etc. The session came to an end Brig. Dixit answering the students' queries. Dr. Babita Bhati, Assistant Professor and Area Chair HRM thanked Brig. Dixit for the wonderful session.
